Course Description

As Canada becomes an increasingly multiethnic country and demands for the recognition of diversity multiply, the policy of multiculturalism will continue to gain importance within the Canadian polity. This course is intended to introduce students to the study of the practice of multiculturalism in Canada. It will examine how the management of ethnic diversity is integrated into Canadian public policy. As such, it explores the relationship between multiculturalism and public policy areas such as immigration, employment equity, anti-racism, the welfare state, and federal-provincial-municipal relations. Further, it attempts to put Canadian multicultural policy within the perspective of nation-building, English Canadian nationalism, Québécois nationalism, Canadian partisan politics, and globalization.

Course Requirements

Papers should be in hard copy format. E-mailed assignments to the instructor will not be accepted. The Political Studies Department's policy is that late assignments are penalized 10% per week. All assignments must be submitted by the day of the final exam or they will be considered incomplete. You must complete all the assignments in order to pass this class. If you have a passing grade but have not completed all of the required course work, you will receive a final grade numeric grade of 49% and the along with the grade comment of INF (Incomplete Failure). All assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date and late assignments must be submitted at subsequent classes or the day of the final exam at the very latest. Exceptions may be made, at the instructor's discretion, for students who contact the instructor regarding medical reasons or family emergencies before assignments are due. Documentation will be required in these cases. Please note that computer problems are not considered emergencies, so be sure that the computer you use is in good working order, and that you back up your work on a floppy disc and/or print out rough work and essay drafts.

Concerns about the marking of assignments are welcome. If the student has concerns about the mark that they received for an assignment, they are asked to submit a written memo of a half page to the instructor explaining their concern at the beginning of the class after the assignment has been handed back to the student. The instructor will review the student's work and report back to the student on their concern.

Plagiarism

The St. Thomas More Faculty Council has adopted the following policy on plagiarism:

"St. Thomas More College follows the rules regarding Academic Dishonesty as delineated in the University of Saskatchewan Calendar. Of these, plagiarism is a particularly serious offence that involves presenting another person's writing, ideas or creative work as your own. When quoting, paraphrasing, describing, presenting, summarizing or translating the work of others, you must acknowledge the source of the information you use, which includes ensuring that the reader can differentiate between your words and the words of others. Sources may come in print, electronic, digital, visual or oral form, and may be provided by a published author, fellow student, artist, or Internet site. Purchasing papers is not permitted. It is your responsibility to understand what constitutes plagiarism; when in doubt, consult your professor. For further information see www.usask.ca/honesty"

Students with Disabilities

If you are a student who is registered with the Office of Disability Services for Students, you may apply for unique services or arrangements to complete the requirements for this course. Normally, these services will be provided through the DSS office. If you have not yet registered with that office, please do so as quickly as possible.
